

welcomes

Bob Abernethy

“The Life of Meaning: Reflections on Faith, Doubt, and Repairing the World”

Monday, November 7th - 7:30 p.m.

Presentation followed by Reception and Book Signing

Veteran Television news correspondent Bob Abernethy is the executive director and host of Religion & Ethics NewsWeekly, a half hour news magazine that focuses on all major religions, all denominations and all expressions of spirituality as well as moral issues facing this country. In St. Louis, Religion & Ethics NewsWeekly can be seen on Channel 9 on Sunday mornings.

Mr. Abernethy has also co-authored a book, The Life of Meaning. His speech will include video excerpts from interviews with about a dozen men and women who speak from various faith perspectives about belief, suffering, prayer and living a devout and useful life, which some see as a partnership with God in practicing the repair of the world.

Abernethy is an alumnus of Princeton University and a member of the United Church of Christ.

Free and Open to All

Ladue Chapel Presbyterian Church
9450 Clayton Road, St. Louis, MO 63124
314-993-4771 x 3111 www.leeinstitute.net

The Lee Institute seeks to provide stimulus and education for spiritual growth for persons in the congregation and community through a public speaking series and practical seminars.